Advocates in Action Giving Circle
supporting Women Against Abuse’s legal services

Established in 1977, the Women Against Abuse Legal Center is among the first domestic violence legal service providers in the country. Women Against Abuse’s dedicated attorneys, court advocates and telephone counselors provide support and representation for women and men seeking legal protections from abuse. Attorneys provide representation for victims seeking protection from abuse orders, as well as child custody and support. Through innovative programming, the Women Against Abuse Legal Center serves 6,000 individuals each year, empowering them to break the cycle of domestic violence and embrace futures of hope and safety.

Purpose: To provide crucial support for the Women Against Abuse life-saving legal services.

THE BENEFITS FOR JOINING:

- Giving Circle participants will receive special recognition. Members will be featured in the organization’s Annual Report and on its website, which attracts more than 9,000 visits per month. This is a terrific opportunity for brand recognition for participating law firms.
  - Members will also be highlighted in an annual Legal Center Annual Report.

- Giving Circle members will be “in the know” on the latest news. Members will receive periodic e-mail updates specific to the Legal Center, landmark cases, legislation, and successful appeals.

- Giving Circle members will receive special invitations. Members will have the opportunity to attend an intimate donor appreciation event, hosted by the President of the Women Against Abuse Board of Directors. This is an exclusive annual event reserved for VIP supporters of Women Against Abuse and the Legal Center.
